best ever! In full: A perfect route, well laid out, well marshaled, well marked, well contoured and very scenic. A tough day but a rewarding. About halfway along we got caught up on the road and had to cross a busy road at a spot without a footway crossing and it took about 20 mins but nevertheless I consider that a bonus as a bit of a diversion. The course is not easy to follow but it is well signed with bibs at the roadside at most points. Despite the sunshine, it was a cold day and we ran in the centre of the tarmac. Did this in 4 hours for the first time and improved to a 5 hour time on the return. I will definitely do this again and would recommend it to all. Date of review: March 3, 2007 In short: In a word - WONDERFUL! In full: My first marathon and my first Marathon Des Sables this was an amazing run and I must say without a doubt one of the best marathons I have run. I've joined a new running group which is either Oxford St Lukes Runners or the Oxford & Bucks Marathon Club and I'd like to say a big THANK YOU to John, for his hard work organising what is quite an impressive event. The race covered two marathon's in one. I think that it was a very hard race but I was extremely happy with the route and the finish. The first part covered what could be described as a Semi Marathon & was 4 miles shorter then the full marathon. Whilst I can't comment on the actual distance, I did find it quite tough but worth it. The final two miles of the first marathon were totally different to what I had done and it was one of those marathons where I felt more tired at the end then at the start. It took me well over 5 hours to complete it which is about right for me. On the second f678ea9f9e
